

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE AND SERVICES

ARTICLE 1 - SCOPE - ENFORCEABILITY

On placing any order of equipment, including software, accessories, spare parts and consumables (hereinafter the "Equipment") and/or of services (hereinafter the "Service(s)") (hereinafter Equipment and Services collectively referred to as "Supplies") with AES Aerospace Embedded Solutions GmbH (hereinafter the "Seller"), the customer (hereinafter the "Customer") (hereinafter the Seller and the Customer referred to as the "Parties") hereby consents and automatically agrees to comply fully and without exception to these terms and conditions, notwithstanding any other contrary stipulation set out in its general purchasing terms or in its other documents. All clauses or conditions set forth by the Customer, whichever are the period and the medium, are unenforceable on the Seller, unless otherwise previously and expressly agreed in writing by the Seller.

The fact that the Seller does not claim at any time any one of the present general terms and conditions shall not be interpreted as a waiver of a later exercise of such a condition.

If any provision of these general terms and conditions is held contrary to a mandatory rule applicable to European Union consumers pursuant to their national legislation, such provision shall not be applicable to these consumers. The remaining provisions shall remain applicable.

ARTICLE 2 - ORDERS

Any offer by the Seller shall remain valid for thirty (30) days from the date thereof, unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller.

Orders must be placed in writing and shall not be cancelled or modified by the Customer, after the date of sending thereof to the Seller, without the prior written consent of the Seller.

The Seller reserves the right to refuse to carry out any order or intervention for a Customer in case of any dispute relating to the payment of a previous order.

Any order shall be considered as accepted by the Seller, only once the Seller has provided written acceptance or has carried it out.

ARTICLE 3 - DELIVERY AND FULFILMENT TIMES

Unless otherwise expressly specified in writing by the Seller, the times must always be considered as given on a purely indicative basis. Any delay in delivery or in work will not entitle the Customer to terminate its order, nor give rise to the payment of any liquidated damages or penalties and / or damages.

Even if the Seller has accepted binding times in writing, the Seller shall not be under any liability in respect of any commitment of time in the following circumstances:

- Technical difficulties, failure from the Seller's suppliers, failure from carrier, force majeure,
- Lack of or incorrect information given by the Customer,
- Time delayed at the request of the Customer,
- Delay caused by customs and export formalities or by the Customer in the performance of its contractual obligations.

The delivery period shall be reasonably extended in cases of force majeure, labor disputes, insufficient material supplies, energy shortages, refusal of necessary governmental or other authorities' authorizations as well as any other causes beyond Seller's control such as non-performances where Seller is not responsible for and/or inadequate deliveries on the part of suppliers, subcontractors or other such Seller contractors, at least for the duration of such hindrances.

ARTICLE 4 - PACKAGING AND TRANSPORT

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, packaging of Equipment will be undertaken by the Seller. Any specific packaging requested by the Customer shall be invoiced at the price in force on the date of the order. The Seller is under no obligation to take back any packaging.

In all circumstances, the Customer is responsible for verifying on delivery the integrity of the packaging and the contents of any package, and if necessary endorsing to the Seller and to the carrier details of any apparent damage or non-delivery within the time and conditions set forth herein or under law. Failing this, no claims shall be accepted.

ARTICLE 5 - DELIVERY - TRANSFER OF RISK

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, delivery takes place when the Equipment is left at the Customer's disposal in the Seller's premises as per the incoterm defined in Article 8. Risk passes to the Customer on delivery.

In case of orders concerning several pieces of Equipment, the Seller has the option to deliver the pieces of Equipment in one or more consignments. Failing written and motivated reservations from the Customer within eight (8) days following the delivery of the Equipment or the fulfilment of the Service, such Equipment or Service is deemed to conform to the order, without prejudice of the Customer's rights with regard to the guarantee. The Seller has the right to effectuate partial and advance deliveries.

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, Delivery is effectuated FCA Seller facility Munich, Germany pursuant to Incoterm 2020 published by the International Chamber of Commerce, 2020 edition.

If the Customer has failed to take delivery when offered or if shipping is delayed upon its request, the risk shall pass to the Customer. In such cases, the Seller shall notwithstanding any further claims, have the right to charge the Customer for the Supplies which are ready to transfer and to store the Supplies at the Customer's cost.

ARTICLE 6 - INSTALLATION - USE

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, the Seller shall not carry out the installation of the Equipment. In no event, shall the Seller be in charge of preparing the necessary environment for the installation and the correct functioning of the Equipment (in particular for the electric connection) and of the possible required administrative formalities. It will be the Customer's responsibility to arrange for all formalities, and to subscribe at its own expense to any necessary Service, if appropriate for the use in whole or in part of the Equipment.

The Customer shall use the Equipment in accordance with the Seller requirements, and shall take all the necessary measures to ensure the preservation and integrity of any data stored in the Equipment.

ARTICLE 7 - RESERVATION OF TITLE

The Equipment shall remain the entire and exclusive property of the Seller until the payment of the total price of the Equipment has been received by the Seller, including if the Customer files a petition in bankruptcy or is in similar circumstances. The payment shall be considered as effected when the total price of the order has been received in cleared funds by the Seller.

In the case of non payment of an invoice, in whole or in part, on the due date, and according to the provisions of article 13, the Seller shall be entitled to terminate automatically and without the necessity to make an application to the Court, the order and the unpaid Equipment shall be immediately returned to the Seller. All intellectual and industrial property rights in the Equipment and Services supplied by the Seller (including research, projects and software) shall at all times remain vested in the Seller absolutely (or if the case arises, in the third party who is the owner thereof).

ARTICLE 8 - PRICES

Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, prices specified by the Seller are quoted "FCA Seller facility Munich, Germany" according to the Incoterms published by the International Chamber of Commerce, 2020 edition. The Seller may at any time and without notice update its prices or its price list in force.

Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, the prices stated in the Seller's offers or estimates shall remain valid for one (1) month from the date thereof and do not include packaging, transport, insurance and possible installation charges.

The prices are exclusive of taxes. Taxes are those in force at the date of invoicing and must be paid by the Customer.

The invoiced prices are those in force at the time of the order, subject to the provisions included in the Seller's offer.

All expenses, charges and taxes incurred as a result of use of the Equipment (in particular subscription and use charges) shall exclusively be borne by the Customer. When a piece of Equipment is delivered to the DOM TOM or to any country located outside the European Union, customs, local taxes, or other charges relating to the importation may be imposed. The Customer shall be responsible for the appropriate declarations and for the payment of such customs, taxes, and other charges to the Government and agencies thereof in his/her country. Notwithstanding the foregoing, whatever the applicable Incoterm, if Equipment is exported directly to a country outside the European Union, the Seller may provide appropriate customs documentation to the Customer. The Customer shall be liable for meeting any customs and taxes requirements in relation with the Equipment / Services. Customer will provide any documentation (e.g. for VAT purposes) to the Seller upon its first request, especially in the event where Equipment is carried out through airway or seaway. The Seller cannot be held liable, and Customer shall have full responsibility and liability, in the event where such documentation is not delivered to the attention of the Seller in due time.

ARTICLE 9 - TERMS OF PAYMENT

The Equipment and Services shall be invoiced when carried out. Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, invoices are payable, net and without discount, and are due for payment on the thirtieth (30th) day after the date of the invoice. Payment shall be made to the Seller in euros, by bank transfer. At any time, the Seller reserves the right to demand a down payment or a cash payment before carrying out any order, in particular:

- in the event of a payment incident
- in case of an unfavourable financial inquiry on the Customer,
- in the case of a rejection of the Customer's invoices by a factoring company.

In the event of late payment by the Customer for any due instalment, all other instalment will immediately become payable, even if drafts have been issued. The Customer will rightfully, without notification, be liable for a late payment penalty, calculated prorata to the total amount due, at a rate equal to the rate of interest applied by the European central bank (ECB) to its most recent refinancing transaction, plus a ten (10) points. In addition, the Seller shall be entitled to retain all deliveries and all Services, and / or, to terminate the order, according to article 13. Moreover, a fixed indemnity for recovery costs of 40 euros excluding VAT shall be due for each invoice in arrears, without any reminder being required. In the event that litigious proceedings are initiated to recover the debts, the costs incurred by the Seller shall be borne by the Customer and shall be invoiced to the Customer, in addition to the amount due as principal and late payment penalties, together with substantiating documents.

ARTICLE 10 - CONFIDENTIALITY

Documents of any kind (including studies, plans, drawings) handed out by the Seller shall remain the Seller's ownership. The same applies for Software, for which the Customer has only a non-exclusive right of use limited to its sole needs under the order. These documents and Software shall not be disclosed to third parties nor copied, without the Seller prior express consent.

The Customer undertakes, even after the performance of the order:

1. Not to copy, modify, decompile or reverse engineer, in whole or in part, the Equipment or any software embedded in the Equipment.
2. To comply with and procure that all users comply with any applicable licence agreement relating to software embedded in the Equipment.
3. Not to disclose any trade secrets or other confidential information disclosed by the Seller or which he/she may have known through his/her relationship with the Seller.

Notwithstanding any other provision, no source code will be provided to the Customer.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE AND SERVICES

ARTICLE 11 - WARRANTY

11.1

- a) Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, the Seller warrants that any new Equipment (consumables, software and accessories excluded) will be free from defects in workmanship (labour and parts included but travelling/shipment excluded) during a period of twelve (12) months from the date of delivery of the Equipment to the Customer,
- b) As to repaired or exchanged Equipment during the original warranty period hereabove mentioned, the warranty period on the exchanged or repaired Equipment shall expire three (3) months after the date of repair or exchange of such Equipment or upon the expiration of the warranty period applicable to the original Equipment set forth in article 11.1 a), whichever is later.
- c) The Seller warrants its Services on site (labour, travelling and replacement parts) for three (3) months from the date on which the Seller has carried out the said Services and for the same cause of defect.

11.2

Any defective Equipment, under warranty, shall be replaced or repaired, free of charge, at the Seller discretion (to the exclusion of compensation for any other damage), being understood that depending on the Equipment, the work shall be carried out either at the Seller's premises or on the installation site and the Customer shall have to pay either the travel costs of the Seller to the site or the travel costs of the Equipment (transport and insurance) to the Seller.

11.3

The warranty applies under normal conditions of use. Prior to any work, the Customer shall, at its own costs, undertake every step in preparation for such work and save all personalized data held in the Equipment. In case of loss or damage to data, the Seller shall not be liable and shall not reinstall any such data in the Equipment.

No return shall be accepted without the Seller prior written approval.

The Seller has the choice to repair the Equipment with spare parts or new parts, replace the Equipment by a new piece, or in good working order. The defective elements, repaired, shall become the property of the Seller.

The time when the Equipment is repaired or unavailable during the guarantee period shall not give rise to an extension of the guarantee period as set forth in article 11.1 here above, subject to legal mandatory provisions.

11.4

In addition, the Seller shall have no liability under the warranty in respect of:

1. defects, breakdown or malfunction due to:
  - failure to properly follow the installation process and instructions for use; or
  - an external cause to the Equipment (including but not limited to, shock, lightning, fire, vandalism, malevolent action, contacts with various liquids or vermin or water damage of any nature, inappropriate electric voltage); or
  - modifications to the Equipment made without the written approval of the Seller; or
  - a lack of every day maintenance (as described in the documentation supplied with the Equipment) or to a lack of supervision or care; or
  - bad storage conditions or poor environmental conditions, particularly those related to temperature and hygrometry, effects of variations of electric voltage, parasites from the electric network or from the earth; or
  - repair, work (opening or attempt to open the Equipment) or maintenance of the Equipment by persons not authorized by the Seller;
2. damage or defect due to insufficient, improper or bad packaging of Equipment when returned to the Seller
3. wear and tear from normal daily use of the Equipment and its accessories
4. communication or network problems
5. work on any Equipment modified or added without the consent of the Seller
6. Equipment returned to the Seller without its prior consent.
7. Defects or malfunction from parts or materials supplied or chosen by the Customer or from a design imposed by the Customer.

11.5

Subject to legal mandatory provisions, the express warranties set forth in this article 11 are in lieu of all other warranties express or implied. Especially, the Seller makes no representations or warranty as to quality or fitness of the Equipment or Service for any particular purpose. In no event shall the Seller be liable for indirect, special or consequential damage (including but not limited to loss of orders, loss of profits, loss of data and any other financial or commercial damage) whether based on warranty contract or tort.

ARTICLE 12 - OUT OF WARRANTY SERVICES

In the cases of warranty exclusion as well as after the expiry of the warranty period as described in article 11, a quotation shall be sent to the Customer to be agreed before any work. The repair and return transport costs, mentioned in the agreed quotation, will be invoiced to the Customer.

12.1 Repairs & Standard exchange

The defective spare parts may be sent to the Seller. Upon receipt, the Seller shall send to the Customer a quotation to be agreed for repair or standard exchanges. The cost of expertise and the cost of returning the parts will be invoiced to the Customer according to the price list in force if the Customer does not accept in writing the quotation prior to the end of the validity period thereof, and/or if the Customer rejects the quotation and/or if the part is not repairable and/or if no defect is recognized by the Seller.

The parts sent to the Seller must be packaged by the Customer according to the standards in force and a detailed description of the defects shall be attached to the defective parts. The Seller shall not accept the return of any part unless its prior written consent. Transport and insurance costs in respect of these parts, to the Seller shall be borne by the Customer. The replaced parts shall become the property of the Seller.

12.2 Work on site

Any work on site shall be undertaken in Germany provided it does not need any heavy and / or complex means (nacelles, scales, etc.) the Seller shall not be in charge of maintenance work outside of Germany, unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller. The Seller shall, at its own discretion, repair the defective parts or replace them by new ones or updated spare parts. The replaced spare parts shall become the Seller's property. The repaired or exchanged spare parts shall be invoiced according to the price list in force, plus labour and travelling costs.

12.3

The Seller warrants its Services under this article 12 (labour and replacement parts) for three (3) months from the date on which the Seller has carried out the said Services. Provisions of articles 11.2 to 11.5 of these general terms and conditions shall then apply.

ARTICLE 13 - TERMINATION OF THE ORDER

The Seller shall be entitled to terminate the order at any time automatically and without the necessity to make an application to the Court:

- If the Customer is in breach of any of its contractual obligations in respect of any order, and in particular, in the case of defaulting payment on the due date, and if such breach remains unremedied for a period of fifteen (15) days following notice by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt
- Subject to legal provisions, if the Customer files a petition in bankruptcy or is in similar circumstances.

In all these cases, the Customer will immediately at its own expense return the delivered and unpaid Equipment, in good working order to any address which will be specified by the Seller, and will pay the Seller upon its request damages equal to the price of the Equipment in its condition as new at the date of the order if repair is not feasible. This clause shall not prevent the Seller from claiming for other damages to compensate its damage, if such damage is higher than the hereabove mentioned amount.

ARTICLE 14 - INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, RESULTS OF THE WORK, TRADEMARK

14.1. In as much as the Seller designs, manufactures, and/or assembles according to instructions, drawings, or other such documents furnished by the Customer, the Seller shall not be liable for any infringement of intellectual property rights and/or copyrights (hereinafter "IPR") resulting therefrom.

14.2. If a third party asserts a justified claim against the Customer based on an infringement of an IPR by the Supplies made by the Seller and used in conformity with the contract, the Seller shall be liable to the Customer within the time period stipulated in Article 11 a) as follows:

14.2.1. The Seller shall choose whether to acquire, at its own expense, the right to use the IPR with respect to the Supplies concerned or whether to modify the Supplies such that they no longer infringe the IPR or replace them. If this would be impossible for the Seller, under reasonable conditions, the Customer may rescind the contract or reduce the remuneration pursuant to the applicable statutory provisions. The Seller's liability to pay damages is governed by Article 15.

14.2.2. The above obligations of the Seller shall only apply if the Customer (i) immediately notifies the Seller of any such claim asserted by the third party in written form, (ii) does not concede the existence of an infringement and (iii) leaves any protective measures and settlement negotiations to the Seller's discretion.

14.3. Where other defects in title occur, the provisions of Article 11 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

14.4. Any other claims of the Customer against the Seller or any such claims exceeding the claims provided for in this Article 14, based on a defect in title, shall be excluded.

14.5. The Seller herewith reserves any property rights, intellectual property rights and/or copyrights pertaining to its cost estimates, quotations, drawings, models, tools, devices or other documents (hereinafter "Documents") created to fulfill the contract. These Documents shall not be made accessible to third parties and shall upon the Seller's request, be returned without undue delay.

14.6.1. Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, in the event the Supplies consist of providing design, development, planning or calculation services or other intangible assets or computer programs (hereinafter "Work Results" directly required for the production of an Equipment – whether or not those Work Results are protected by industrial property rights and /or copyrights or not – the Seller grants the Customer the non-exclusive and non-transferable right to use the Work Results to the extent required for the use of physical embodiments in the Equipment as developed and delivered by the Seller to the Customer, provided, however, that the remuneration for the Supplies was paid in full to the Seller. The Seller shall be exclusively entitled to apply for industrial property rights for Work Results. Such licenses shall be only transferable to third parties along with the respective physical embodiment of the Equipment.

14.6.2. In other cases where the Supplies consists of providing „Work Results“ not directly required for the production of an Equipment, the Seller grants the Customer the non-exclusive and non-transferable right to use the Work Results limited to the field of application defined in the contract, provided, however, that the remuneration for the Supplies was paid in full to the Seller. The Seller shall be exclusively entitled to apply for industrial property rights for Work Results.

14.7. Any further rights to use the Work Results require the Seller's prior written approval and are subject to a separate remuneration.

14.8. The Customer shall not use the trademarks under which the Equipment is sold except for identifying such Equipment. The Customer shall not alter or remove any marking on the Equipment.

The Customer shall not register, in its own name, nor to have them registered, the Seller's trademark, any trademarks or other distinctive sign of the Seller or which may be confused with those of the Seller.

14.9. The Customer grants to the Seller a non-exclusive, royalty-free, fully paid up, worldwide, license, under Customer's IPR to the extent this is required to perform Services.

ARTICLE 15 - LIABILITY

Subject to mandatory legal provisions, in particular under product liability law, the Seller's total and aggregate liability whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise shall not exceed 50% of the amount paid by the Customer to the Seller under the concerned order.

In no case, shall the Seller be liable for any indirect, and/or consequential, and /or non material and / or moral damage including in particular financial and commercial loss such as loss of profit, loss of orders, loss of production, loss of anticipated earnings, punitive damages, loss of data, damage to reputation, interruption of Service and losses of whatever nature claimed to the Seller by the Customer, due to damage suffered by third parties.

In addition, the Seller shall be under no liability in the event of damage caused to Customer's data or programs, being specified that the Customer has to save such data at his/her own costs. No data shall under any circumstances be reinstalled by the Seller in the Equipment in case of damage.

The Customer must comply at his/her own exclusive costs with all applicable laws and regulations in force in the country where the Equipment is delivered or used. The Seller shall be under no liability and no obligation to compensate in case of force majeure.

ARTICLE 16 - COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

The Customer shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations such as personal data and export regulations from the United States of America, the European Union and its relevant member country. Customer shall also comply with the legal provisions against corruption in accordance with any applicable anti-corruption laws or regulations including but not limited to the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, the UK Bribery Act 2010, the OECD Convention of 1997 and the United Nations Convention Against Corruption of 2003 (UNCAC). Customer shall not grant, directly or indirectly, any unduly gift, present, payment, remuneration or benefit whatsoever (trip, etc.) to anyone in connection with the sale of the Equipment/Services described under the present general terms and conditions.

In the event of failure to comply with the foregoing provision, the Seller shall automatically have the right to terminate and cease any order passed referencing the present general terms and conditions with immediate effect and without compensation for the Customer, and without prejudice to any remedies that the Seller may take against the Customer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event where Equipment or Services are subject to export laws and regulations as well as national, foreign and international regulations, the Parties shall comply with such regulations. Consequently, the Seller will do its reasonable efforts to request any official authorizations to deliver Services and Equipment, and the Customer will not import, export or re-export Equipment, Services or any related confidential information without obtaining all required government licenses, approvals or waivers and will provide reasonable assistance to the Seller for him to obtain such authorizations in time. In the event such authorizations are not obtained, revoked or renewed by the government authority at the request of the Seller, such event shall be considered as an event of force majeure and the Seller shall be released from his obligations hereunder. The Customer shall take care and inform the Seller of the applicable export control classification(s) and further changes and stating the classification on any relevant document. The Customer shall further take care and inform the Seller of any change in relation with the use/end-user of the corresponding Equipment/Service and applicable governmental authorization such as import or export licences (e.g. revocation, suspension, non-renewal, invalidity, scope changes) along with the circumstances which would render the Seller ineligible to a delivery.

The Parties agree that if a Technical Assistance Agreement (TAA) or a Manufacturing License Agreement (MLA) is necessary for the fulfilment of a contract, the scope and content of the TAA or MLA shall be agreed with the other Party prior to the its submission to the relevant authority. A copy of the agreement or the license inclusive all collateral clauses and conditions shall be provided to the other Party.

Unless otherwise agreed, any government fees or charges relating to obtaining any required licenses and/or authorizations shall be borne by the party which is responsible for the application.

Both Parties undertake to comply with the national and European regulations regarding data protection and in particular to only use personal data for the purpose of performing the services, to implement all the necessary measures of security and confidentiality in order to protect this type of data, to ensure the compliance of potential transfer outside Union European, to delete said data at the expiry of the retention period agreed between the Parties and to reply to any request from data subjects. Furthermore, each Party undertakes to give notification to the other Party in case of any security breach that may have consequences on the data processing.

ARTICLE 17 - FORCE MAJEURE / EXCUSABLE DELAY

The Seller shall not be liable or in breach of its obligations under these general terms and conditions and any orders to the extent that performance of such obligations is delayed or prevented, directly or indirectly, by causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to, acts of God, fire, terrorism, war (declared or undeclared), severe weather conditions, earthquakes, epidemics, material shortages, insurrection, acts or omissions of Customer or Customer's suppliers or agents, any act or omission by any governmental authority, strikes, labor disputes, acts or threats of vandalism (including disruption of technology resources), delay in transportation, or vendor's failure to perform (each an "excusable delay" or a "force majeure event"). The delivery or performance date shall be extended for a period equal to the time lost by reason of delay, including time to overcome the effect of the delay. Seller shall use reasonable efforts to continue performance whenever such causes are removed.

If this event of force majeure lasts more than three (3) months, the Seller shall be entitled to automatically terminate the contract and without any damages .

ARTICLE 18 - GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

To the exclusion of the provisions of the Vienna Convention on the International Sale of Goods these general terms and conditions and any orders shall be subject to, interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of Switzerland excluding its conflict of law provisions.

Any dispute that the Parties could not settle amicably relating to these general terms and conditions (and/or any order) shall be exclusively and finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one or three arbitrators appointed in accordance with the said Rules. The place of arbitration shall be Munich, Germany. The procedure shall be conducted in English language. The arbitration award shall be final and binding on the Parties. The Parties further agree that the arbitration award shall be final and binding on the Parties.

Furthermore, without inconsistency to the foregoing, each Party may at any time, seek from a court of competent jurisdiction any injunctive, equitable or interim relief to avoid irreparable harm or injury.
